At a joint meeting (30) of the Hindus and Muslims held on 23.11.47 in the maidan at the junction of Circus Range and Tarak Datta Road with MOULVI SAMSUL-HUQ (incompletely identified) as president, ~~speeches~~ were made and resolutions were passed (1) condemning the policies of the communal organisations, which are detrimental to the peace and prosperity of the country; (2) urging (a) the Muslim League representatives elected on the issue of two-nation theory in the different legislatures in the Indian dominion and the Councillors of Calcutta Corporation to denounce the two nation theory and to resign their membership at once (b) disbandment of all communal organisations by legislation if necessary (c) the newspaper editors to refrain from publishing news which may bring hatred between the two Major Communities (d) removal of corruption from the public services (e) withdrawal of all controls and (f) dissolution of Mahalla Committees to deal with rehabilitation and formation of committees mainly composed of Santi Senas and Citizens Defence Force under the control of the Government, and (3) discourging transfer of population and formation of private communal armies. AMIYA BASU urged the people to join the Socialist Republican Party, criticised the Nehru Government for retaining Lord Mountbatten as the Governor General of India and other British officers in the Indian Army and observed that there would be another war between America and Russia in the near future when the Indians should take the opportunity of driving the British from the country.

At a meeting (300) held on 30.12.47 at the Tarapada Memorial Hall with AMIYA NATH BASU as president, *speeches were made condemning the alleged high-handedness of Captain P.C.BASU, Assistant Post Master General and a resolution was passed demanding his immediate transfer from the Bengal and Assam Circle. The President observed that their move against Captain Basu was actually a move against the Government because the so-called nationalist leaders, who run the present Government preferred to keep these autocrats in office. The Government completely identified itself with the Capitalists and brought about the unholy alliance of the British vested interest with that of the Indians.

Incidentally he remarked that MAHATMAJI'S advocacy for decontrolling Sugar was meant to help the Birlas. He asked the audience to enlist the sympathy of the public through leafleteering as the nationalist press, which had been purchased by the Government, would not ventilate their grievances and assured them of all support of the Socialist Republican Party in their struggle.

He also remarked that most of the ministers held shares worth lakhs of rupees in different companies which they had received by way of gifts from the capitalist proprietors of those concerns. He also criticised His Excellency C.RAJAGOPALACHARIAR for his alleged anti-Bengali feelings and bias against NETAJI. He remarked that Bengal could never expect any good from such a Governor. DR.INDRA NARAYAN SEN GUPTA also demanded the removal of the present ministry and urged all Bengalees to rally round SREEJUT SARAT CHANDRA BASU to fight out their cause. SREE SATYEN BASU remarked that the present B.P.C.C. was not truly representative of the people of Bengal and that it should be reconstituted. PANDIT ASOKE NATH SASTRI accused the Bengal Ministry and particularly the Premier and the President of the B.P.C.C. with having wasted public money by flying between Calcutta and New Delhi for securing their own selfish ends. SREE SARAT CHANDRA BASU criticised the Central Government and the Congress High Command for their ulterior motive of crippling the high position of Bengal by gradual mutilation of her boundary. He also criticised the Congress President BABU RAJENDRA PRASAD for his anti-Bengali feelings and quoting his presidential speech in the Hindi Sahitya Sammeloni at Patna where he was reported to have asked the Biharees to promote the cause of Hindi in the Bengali speaking areas of Bihar, he (SREEJUT BASU) remarked that it was scandalous on the part of the "Rastrapati" to have given vent to that kind of provincialism. Referring to the Ministerial tangle in Bengal he said that no constitutional question was raised when the colleagues of DR.P.C.GHOSH had conspired to overthrow him and that it was strange that the same set of people were taking shelter behind the same constitutional question in order to hoodwink the public for the purpose of upholding their own ministerial position. He charged both the GHOSH Government and the RAY Government for the growth and development of blackmarketing and corruption. He added that Bengal was today ruled by the Birla-Raj instead of the "Kisan-Majdoor Praja Raj" as propagated by MAHATMA GANDHI. He said that the acceptance of the MOUNTBATTEN AWARD, the invitation of the U.N.O. to mediate over the Kashmir issue and the acceptance of the suggestion of LORD MOUNTBATTEN for replacing the words "STATES OF INDIA" by detecting the words "United Sovereign Republic" in the new constitution, meant that India was a tool in the hands of the British Imperialists and that India was going to remain within the British Commonwealth. Referring to the proposal of extending the term of office of the present Governor-General, SREEJUT BASU said that India was running a race with Pakistan for wooing Great Britain. In conclusion he opined that if India and her neighbouring countries wanted to attain freedom and maintain their neutrality in the event of a Third World War, the best course for her would be to form "The United Nations of South Asia" and tell England, America and Russia to keep their hands off Asia. Characterising the Calcutta presses as servile for echoing their master's voice, he exhorted the people to stand on their own legs for having their demands fulfilled without relying on any of the three viz. the Central Government, the Provincial Government and the B.P.C.C.

D.945/48

At a meeting* (1500) held on 3.5.48 at the University Institute Hall with SREE SARAT CHANDRA BASU as President speeches were made demanding the inclusion of the Bengali speaking areas of Bihar and Orissa to West Bengal and emphasising on the necessity of carrying on an intensive propaganda so that the Congress High Command and the Central Government accede to those legitimate demands of Bengal. The speakers were unanimous in criticising the silence of the West Bengal Cabinet and the Bengal Provincial Congress Committee on this issue. It was added that West Bengal was in dire need of those tracts for dealing with the rehabilitation problem effectively. SREE PRASAD /HEMENDRA GHOSH said that neither DR.PRAFULLA CHANDRA GHOSH nor the Hon'ble DR.B.C.RAY had the time to take up any constructive programme though the Security Bill could be passed during the tenure of the former, and corruption and blackmarketing were at its zenith during the tenure of the other. He was accused DR.P.C.GHOSH for supporting and shielding the Police officers who were charged with murdering SISIR MANDAL. He also opined that the fall of DR.GHOSH'S Ministry was due to his over-zealousness for the inclusion of his followers into the Cabinet including SRI ANNADA PRASAD CHAUDHURI criticising the activities of the Hon'ble DR.B.C.RAY and charging him with inviting non-Congress elements to join the Ministry, the speaker said that his mimistry had proved a total failure to provide the people with food, cloth and other necessities of life. Commenting on the smuggling of clothes from the province to Pakistan, he remarked that either the ministry itself was responsible for the same because of their failure to utilise the Police force or that they were unable and afraid of controlling and punishing the police. He demanded a public enquiry into the supply of steel and cement for the construction of the innumerable cinema houses in the city and particularly the buildings at Russa Road known as "Ashutosh Nagar" when the East Bengal refugees were not supplied with even a spoonful of cement for building their houses. ... inc

Howard L. Bevis, President,

Department of Political Science.

My dear Mr. Bose:

Very many thanks indeed for your letter of the 14th of July. I understand from my Secretary, who is sending it on by ship mail, that a letter has also come from Amiya to which I will reply so soon as I receive it here.

As touching your inquiry about a Correspondent for the new journal, "The Nation" (on which I congratulate you), I am a little at a loss as to what suggestion to make. I myself do not know in London any young Indian or Englishman with whom I am sufficiently acquainted to recommend him. It occurs to me that Fenner Brockway might have somebody in mind, but whether you will be prepared to take Fenner Brockway's recommendation is another matter. It is just possible that my daughter, who is a protegee of Herbert Morrison's and a scholar of Somerville, might be prepared to do it subject to my revision, but it seems to be likely that you would want some more experienced journalist. I myself am contributing articles every other month to a journal called "Eurasia", and you may happen to have seen these contributions. To undertake however a weekly article is a rather heavier obligation and might have its difficulties owing to the fact that I am so frequently away.

However I will chew over the matter more fully and see whether I can make any constructive recommendation, in which case I will send you a note by air mail.

If it was a question of course of being an occasional correspondent, that would be much easier to arrange especially as Press Association Reuters Features Syndicate broadcasts my stuff and endeavors to get among other things, Indian lodgment.

May I add that I very much hope that in the next eighteen months I shall be able to come out again, perhaps with my wife. It is a considerable source of regret to me that although invited by R.N. Tagore to Santiniketan this January, I shall not be able to accept. With cordial regards to yourself and all the members of your family.

Yours very sincerely,

Sd/- George Catlin.

mammoth meeting held. In the morning flag was hoisted by BEPIN GANGULI at Sraddhanand Park attended by 50 volunteers of the Central Calcutta Jatiya Bahini with a band party and members of the public. Two big processions were taken out in the afternoon one from Deshabandhu Park (2000) and another from Deshapriya Park (1500). Small processions from various parts of the City converged in these two parks. After parading through different thoroughfares these two processions which were further joined by people en route, terminated at the maidan where a big rally of workers, students and the general public was held at the foot of Ochterlony Monument. In the evening two torch light processions were taken out from the Aryan ground - one to North Calcutta (400) consisting of 250 burning torches which terminated at the R.G.Kar Road and the other to South Calcutta consisting of 95 burning torches, which terminated at Deshapriya Park. The latter procession was led by AMIYA BASU and SATYA GUPTA in uniform.
Large crowds watched the two processions which were taken out from Deshabandhu and Deshapriya Parks. The processions were composed of men on horseback, motor cycles, push bykes, trucks, jeeps and on foot. Big portraits of Netaji and posters depicting the growth of the I.N.A. and the part played by Netaji in its formation and development were carried in the processions. There were several band parties in both the processions. Members and volunteers of the Forward Bloc, Socialist Party, Azad Hind Dal, Hindusthan National Guards, Santi Sena, Muslim National Guard, Rani of Jhansi Brigade, Azad Hind Volunteer Corps, Red Guard, Jatiya Sangha, Azad Hind Ambulance Service, Rakhi Sangha, R.S.P.I. C.P.I. Hind Sebak Bahini, Bharat Jatiya Bahini, Mahajati Sebak Sangha, Darjeepara Bijoyee Sangha, Subhas Brigade, Agragami Sakti Sangha, Harijan Jubak Sangha, Netaji Tarun Sangha, Swaraj Sangha and other student and workers' organisations and clubs participated in the processions. Flags and banners of respective organisations were also displayed. Most of the processionists carried miniature flags of the Indian Dominion on their person. The procession from Deshapriya Park stopped for sometime in front of Netaji Bhawan at 38/2, Elgin Road and paid its homage to Netaji. From time to time people were urged to join the Socialist Republican Party and "Netaji Subhas Brigade" through an amplifier fitted on a truck.

National flag was also hoisted in the morning at the junction of Clive Street and Clive Row by an unknown person in presence of 25 volunteers and three persons delivered lectures on Netaji SUBHAS BASU.

At the rally (50,000) held at the foot of the Ochterlony Monument in the afternoon SJ.SARAT CHANDRA BOSE who presided, explained the significance of the Day, eulogised Netaji for his sacrifice and bravery and remarked that Netaji's Azad Hind Fouz which was composed of the people of all communities, never fought for such partial freedom and a fragmented India.
